

Session 1: Introduction, Let's tell a story

- We Gather Together: go around and introduce names (perhaps Name and finish the sentence, "When I was young...." or "When I grow up....")

Index cards given to everyone-- cards are highlighted to the lines of the poem to get us started into a story

Leader: Long, long ago, people had no books to read.

Speaker 1: Yet there were always stories to hear.

Speaker 2: People told stories to their children, and when their children grew up, they told stories to their children, and so it went.

Speaker 3: Long, long ago, people sat around the fire as night fell.

Speaker 4: Their work was done and they rested.

Speaker 5: The storyteller began a tale.

All: Everyone listened.

- Telling: The King and the Storyteller

Discussion of IMAGES. And what stories can do. Ease your mind. Keep you company.

You will work with your partner, and not only will your partner keep you company, but our stories will keep us connected.

- Getting to Know You: Go off into pairs and conduct interviews.
If done with the interview form, then can sketch their partner

- Closing: Reminder of pictures next week. Bring in photos that are important to you to share with your partner.
